

RECOMMENDATIONS

- The Commission recommends that Congress carefully examine any agreement involving Internet service providers that addresses pressures from the Chinese government to provide personally identifiable information about Internet users and that Congress periodically review the effectiveness of such agreements.
- The Commission recommends that Congress investigate the possibility that Chinese government press and Internet censorship violates China's obligations as a member of the World Trade Organization.