

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN OUR RESEARCH INTERNSHIP?

The U.S.-China Economic & Security Review Commission (USCC) has ongoing openings for Research Interns, and is dedicated to maintaining a diverse workforce with a wide variety of backgrounds and expertise.

All applicants for Research Internships must be U.S. citizens (or have applied for U.S. citizenship and naturalization), and must have at least a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale).

Research Interns must be at least college juniors or seniors in good standing, or be recent graduates. Coursework with a focus on Chinese and/or broader Asian business, economics, culture, history, & language; international relations, foreign affairs and security studies; or specialization in other related areas is desirable. Chinese reading skills are highly desirable.

ABOUT THE COMMISSION:

Our mission is to monitor, investigate, and make recommendations to Congress about matters of concern in relationship between the United States and the People's Republic of China in the following areas: 1) proliferation practices, 2) economic transfers, 3) energy, 4) U.S. capital markets, 5) regional economic and security relationships, 6) U.S.-China bilateral programs, 7) China's World Trade Organization compliance, and 8) freedom of expression – the implications of restrictions on speech and access to information in the People's Republic of China.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Research, monitor and conduct analysis on developments primarily in China, Taiwan, and the western Pacific Region.
2. Prepare meeting summaries, reports, and other information and may be required to prepare and present briefings on this work.
3. Work with USCC staff on the planning and preparation for the Commission's public hearings, report editing sessions, and other meetings; attends seminars, meetings and events on behalf of the USCC.
4. May draft, fact check, or edit text/material for the Commission's Annual Report, and perform other duties as assigned.

USCC Internships are intellectually challenging and require individual initiative and an ability to monitor and report on current events and issues. Strong research and communications skills – writing and oral – are essential.
