

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP?

The U.S.-China Economic & Security Review Commission (USCC) offers full-time, 24 week Research Fellowship opportunities based on the required workload of the Commission, which is generally on a semester basis. Fellowships are filled on a rolling basis. Generally, the first session begins in mid-January and the second begins in July; however start and end dates are variable based on the Commission's needs. The USCC is dedicated to maintaining a diverse workforce with a wide variety of backgrounds and expertise.

ABOUT THE COMMISSION:

The U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission (USCC) was created by the United States Congress in October 2000 with the legislative mandate to monitor, investigate, and submit to Congress an annual report on the national security implications of the bilateral trade and economic relationship between the United States and the People's Republic of China, and to provide recommendations, where appropriate, to Congress for legislative and administrative action.

You can review the Commission's mandate in detail at <http://www.uscc.gov/about/charter.php>.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Research, monitor, and conduct analysis on developments related to China, Taiwan, and the western Pacific Region.
2. Complete independent, original research projects assigned by the Commission's Research Working Group (RWG).
3. Draft, fact check, and/or edit material for the Commission's Annual Report, and perform related duties as assigned.
4. Attend seminars, meetings, and events on behalf of the USCC, and write memorandum to Commissioners and staff members.

REQUIREMENTS AND QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Must be a U.S. citizen, or have applied for U.S. citizenship and naturalization.
2. Must be a current graduate-level student, or a graduate of an accredited Master's or J.D. program.
3. Must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) at the current or last institution attended.
4. Must have coursework in one or more of the following areas:
 - a. Economics & Trade: coursework with a focus on Chinese and/or broader Asian business, economics, and trade.
 - b. General Research: coursework with a focus on Chinese and/ or broader Asian culture, society, and language.
 - c. Military & Security: coursework with a focus on Chinese and/or broader Asian international relations, foreign affairs, and security studies.

5. Chinese language skills – reading, writing, and/or speaking – at an advanced level are highly desirable.

Fellows are expected to work a full-time schedule with little supervision on substantive long term assignments and projects. USCC Fellowships are intellectually challenging and require individual initiative. Strong research and communications skills – writing and oral – are essential.
