

Dan Rosen

Founding Partner, Rhodium Group

Daniel H. Rosen is a Founding Partner of the Rhodium Group and leads the firm's work on China and the world economy. Mr. Rosen's focus includes U.S.-China policy dynamics, interpretation of Chinese economic performance indicators, and assessment of long-term Chinese reform and policy directions as they impact interests at home and around the world.

Mr. Rosen is an Adjunct Professor of International and Public Affairs at Columbia University, where he has taught on the Chinese economy since 2001. He is affiliated with a number of preeminent American think tanks. Since 1992, he has authored dozens of books and reports on China's economic and commercial development.

From 2000-2001, Mr. Rosen was Senior Advisor for International Economic Policy at the White House National Economic Council and National Security Council, where he played a key role in completing China's accession to the World Trade Organization and accompanied the President to Asia for summits and state visits.

Mr. Rosen is a Member of the Council on Foreign Relations and serves on the Board of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations.

Mr. Rosen most recently testified before the Commission at its 2011 hearing on "Chinese State-Owned Enterprises and U.S.-China Bilateral Investment."
