

Ryan LaFond, Ph.D
Deputy Chief Investment Officer, Algert Global

Ryan LaFond is the Deputy Chief Investment Officer of Algert Global, an investment firm focused on managing global absolute return and active long-only strategies for both institutional and private investors. Prior to rejoining Algert Global, Dr. LaFond was Head of Research for the Asia Pacific and Emerging Markets Equity group within BlackRock's Scientific Active Equity team. Dr. LaFond began his career as an assistant professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Sloan School of Management. Dr. LaFond earned a BBA degree and Ph.D. with a concentration in Accounting, both from the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. LaFond has not previously testified before the Commission.