

Margaret Myers

Director of Asia & Latin America Program, Inter-American Dialogue

Margaret Myers is director of the Asia & Latin America Program at the Inter-American Dialogue. She has published extensively on China's relations with the Latin America and Caribbean region. The Political Economy of China-Latin America Relations and The Changing Currents of Trans-Pacific Integration: China, the TPP, and Beyond, her co-edited volumes with Dr. Carol Wise and Dr. Adrian Hearn, respectively, were published in 2016. Myers has testified before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on the China-Latin America relationship and is regularly featured in major domestic and international media. Myers also worked as a Latin America analyst and China analyst for the US Department of Defense, during which time she was deployed with the US Navy in support of Partnership of the Americas. Myers was a Council on Foreign Relations term member and the recipient of a Freeman fellowship for China studies and a Fulbright Specialist grant to research China-Colombia relations in Bogotá. In 2018, she was identified by Global Americans as among the "new generation of public intellectuals."

Ms. Myers has not previously testified before the Commission.
