

Emily de La Bruyere

Co-Founder, Horizon Advisory and Senior Fellow, Foundation for Defense of Democracies

Emily de La Bruyere is a co-founder of Horizon Advisory, a geopolitical consultancy, and a senior fellow at the Washington, DC-based Foundation for Defense of Democracies. She has led extensive China research programs and developed novel analysis tools and techniques. She received her BA summa cum laude from Princeton University and her MA summa cum laude from Sciences Po, Paris, where she was the Michel David-Weill Fellow. Her public commentaries have been published in Bloomberg, the Wall Street Journal, and TechCrunch.

Ms. de La Bruyere previously testified at the Commission's 2020 hearing titled "China's Strategic Aims in Africa."