

Puma Shen

Associate Professor, National Taipei University and Chairman, Doublethink Lab

Dr. Puma Shen is an Associate Professor at National Taipei University, specializing in research on white-collar crime, information operations, and penology. With a background in law and human rights advocacy, Shen has a strong passion for issues related to social justice and human rights. In addition to academic work, Shen serves as the Chairperson of Doublethink Lab and the Founder of Kuma Academy. Shen is also a Vice President of the Taiwan Association for Human Rights. Through research and advocacy, Shen strives to contribute to the creation of a more just and equitable society for the Taiwanese.

Dr. Shen has not previously testified before the Commission.