

Sarah Cook

Senior Advisor for China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan at Freedom House

Sarah Cook is Senior Advisor for China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan at Freedom House. She previously served as Research Director for China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan, in which capacity she directed the Beijing's Global Media Influence project and China Media Bulletin, a monthly digest in English and Chinese providing news and analysis on media freedom developments related to China.

Cook was the author of the global essays for the 2022 report Beijing's Global Media Influence: Authoritarian Expansion and the Power of Democratic Resilience, as well as four prior special reports about China: Beijing's Global Megaphone (2020), The Battle for China's Spirit (2017), The Politburo's Predicament (2015), and The Long Shadow of Chinese Censorship (2013). Her comments and writings have appeared on CNN, The Wall Street Journal, Foreign Policy, and the U.S. Congressional-Executive Commission on China.

Before joining Freedom House, Ms. Cook co-edited the English translation of A China More Just, a memoir by prominent rights attorney Gao Zhisheng, and was twice a delegate to the United Nations Human Rights Commission meeting in Geneva for an NGO working on religious freedom in China. She received a B.A. in International Relations from Pomona College and as a Marshall Scholar, completed Master's degrees in Politics and International Law at the School of Oriental and African Studies in London.

Ms. Cook has testified before the Commission twice, most recently in 2017 at the Commission's hearing titled "China's Information Controls, Global Media Influence, and Cyber Warfare Strategy."
