

Cordell A. Hull

Visiting Fellow, National Security Institute, George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School

Cordell Hull is a Visiting Fellow at the National Security Institute at George Mason's Antonin Scalia Law School. He is also a Global Fellow at the Wilson Center and a Principal at WestExec Advisors. Cordell served as the Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security from November 2019 to December 2020, where he led the U.S. government's efforts on export controls of dual-use items. He served in other senior roles at the Department of Commerce, including in the Office of General Counsel and in legislative affairs. Before his time at Commerce, he served as the General Counsel of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, where his portfolio included export controls and investment screening. Cordell earned his law degree from the Catholic University of America's Columbus School of Law. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Hull has not previously testified before the Commission.