Devin Thorne

Principal Threat Intelligence Analyst for China Geopolitics, Recorded Future

Devin Thorne is the Principal Threat Intelligence Analyst for China Geopolitics at Recorded Future, where his research covers People's Republic of China security strategy, People's Liberation Army modernization and doctrine, military-civil fusion, national defense mobilization, maritime security, and propaganda work. Prior to joining Recorded Future, Mr. Thorne was a Senior Analyst with the Center for Advanced Defense Studies (C4ADS). Mr. Thorne is the author of Inside China's National Defense Mobilization Reform: Capacity Surveys, Mobilization Resources, and "New-Type" Militias. He has also completed contract research for and published with organizations including the U.S. Naval War College China Maritime Studies Institute, Korea Institute for Maritime Strategy, Jamestown Foundation, Center for International Maritime Security, Hudson Institute, U.S. Department of State, and U.S. Department of Defense. Thorne speaks Mandarin Chinese and holds a master's degree from the Johns Hopkins University-Nanjing University Center for Chinese and American Studies.

Mr. Thorne has not previously testified before the Commission.