

Dr. Dean Baker

Co-Director, Co-Founder

Center For Economic and Policy Research

Dr. Baker is the Co-Director for the Center for Economic and Policy Research which he co-founded in 1999. His areas of research include housing and macroeconomics, intellectual property, Social Security, Medicare and European labor markets. Dr. Baker previously worked as a senior economist at the Economic Policy Institute and an assistant professor at Bucknell University. He has also worked as a consultant for the World Bank, the Joint Economic Committee of the U.S. Congress, and the OECD's Trade Union Advisory Council.

He is the author of several books, including Getting Back to Full Employment: A Better bargain for Working People, The End of Loser Liberalism: Making Markets Progressive, and, The United States Since 1980, Social Security: The Phony Crisis. His blog, Beat the Press, provides commentary on economic reporting. He received his B.A. from Swarthmore College and his Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Michigan.

Dr. Baker testified before the Commission in 2005 (China and the Future of Globalization).