

Peter Mattis
Fellow, China Program, Jamestown Foundation

Peter Mattis is a fellow in the China Program at the Jamestown Foundation and a Ph.D. student in politics and international studies at the University of Cambridge. He edited Jamestown's biweekly China Brief from 2011 to 2013. Prior to the Jamestown Foundation, Mr. Mattis worked as an international affairs analyst for the U.S. Government. He received his M.A. in security studies from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service and earned his B.A. in political science and Asian studies from the University of Washington in Seattle. He also previously worked as a research associate at the National Bureau of Asian Research in its Strategic Asia and Northeast Asian Studies programs.

Mr. Mattis previously testified at the Commission's 2016 "Hearing on Chinese Intelligence Services and Espionage Operations."