

PRC Representation in International Organizations

Note on methodology: This memo identifies Chinese nationals serving as the heads of key international organizations and in other top leadership positions in United Nations (UN) Principle Organs, UN Funds and Programs, UN specialized agencies, other UN Entities and Bodies, and International Trade and Financial Institutions. Top leadership positions are broadly defined as positions at the board of directors and senior management team level. Positions at the board of governors level are not included as Governors are appointed by their governments and are typically a member country’s top official, such as the minister of finance or central bank governor. This document reflects data as of January 10, 2019, and will be updated on a semi-annual basis.
