

Mr. Michael B. Turner, Executive Vice President, Mars & Co

Mr. Turner joined Mars & Co as an Associate Consultant in 1990. As Executive Vice President, he is in charge of the firm's Americas Operations. In the course of his career at Mars & Co, Mr. Turner has helped top management of numerous Fortune 100 corporations in automotive, consumer goods, retail, and financial services sectors (among others) across North America, Latin America, Europe, and Asia. Today, Mr. Turner continues to enjoy the business challenges and industry leaders he encounters in his role as a senior professional of the firm.

Mr. Turner graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Dual-Degree Management and Technology Program in 1989, receiving a Bachelor of Science from the Moore School of Electrical Engineering and a Bachelor of Science in Economics from Wharton School of Business.

He lives in Darien, Connecticut with his wife, and has two daughters, one living in Washington, DC, and another in her first year as a student at the University of Virginia.