

Mr. Terrence P. Stewart, Managing Partner, Stewart and Stewart

In his capacity as managing partner of Stewart and Stewart, Mr. Stewart's practice focuses on international trade matters, including trade remedies in the U.S. and abroad, protection of trading rights within bilateral, plurilateral and multilateral fora, customs law, litigation and dispute settlement proceedings for trade agreements, negotiations, trade policy, and studies of conditions in major trading partners such as China.

Mr. Stewart assists clients with international trade matters through the pursuit of trade remedies before administrative agencies, courts, and dispute settlement bodies of international organizations. Additionally, he pursues clients' interests through the development of legislative options on trade-related issues and the evaluation of regulations and practices of countries where clients are active.

Mr. Stewart and the firm have worked with a wide variety of companies, industries, and unions to solve trade and other matters in the United States and across the globe, including matters involving products in agriculture, consumer goods, electronics, metals, mining, automotive, industrial equipment, energy, and others. He has written extensively on and edited numerous publications concerning international trade issues, including unfair trade laws, GATT/WTO issues, trade and investment, and trade relations with China and other trading partners.

Mr. Stewart served as an advisor to the Government of Ukraine for roughly a decade during its efforts to accede to the WTO. He has received an Honorary Degree Order of Merit of the 3rd Degree from the Government of Ukraine, an Honorary Doctorate from the Ukrainian Academy of Foreign Trade and an Honorary Doctorate of Political Science from the Russian Academy of Sciences.

He has testified before the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission several times.
