

Mr. Abraham Denmark

Former Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for East Asia

Mr. Denmark was the deputy assistant secretary of defense for East Asia from 2015 to 2017. Prior to this he served as senior vice president for political and security affairs at the National Bureau of Asian Research and as senior advisor at the Center for Naval Analyses. From 2007 to 2009 he was the country director for China affairs at the Department of Defense. He was also a fellow at the Center for a New American Century and was a member of the National Committee on United States-China Relations and the International Institute for Strategic Studies. He also served on the Advisory Council of the Emerging Science and Technology Policy Centre.

Mr. Denmark edited The U.S.-ROK Alliance in the 21st Century (Korean Institute for National Unification, 2009) and Strategic Asia 2013-2014: Asia in the Second Nuclear Age (National Bureau of Asian Research, 2013). He has authored dozens of reports and articles on U.S. strategy in the Asia-Pacific and has been featured as an expert on major media outlets in the United States and Asia. He earned a master's degree from the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver and studied at China's Foreign Affairs University and Peking University.

Mr. Denmark testified before the Commission at its 2009 hearing on "The Impact of China's Economic and Security Interests in Continental Asia on the United States" and its 2011 hearing on "China Narratives Regarding National Security Policy."