

Paul Gillis, Ph. D.

Professor of Practice and Co-Director of the IMBA Program, Peking University Guanghua School of Management

Paul Gillis is Professor of Practice and Co-Director of the IMBA program at Peking University's Guanghua School of Management. A certified public accountant from the United States, Professor Gillis is a leading expert on accounting and auditing issues in China. He also runs the popular China Accounting Blog website, which covers accounting and finance news in China. Before joining Peking University, Professor Gillis was a Partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers in the United States, Singapore, and China for 28 years. He was also a member of the Standing Advisory Group of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. The International Financial Law Review named Professor Gillis the Market Reformer of the Year in 2012. He is the author of The Big Four and the Development of the Accounting Profession in China (Emerald Group, 2014). He frequently appears on leading business radio and TV channels and is often quoted in international newspapers and magazines, including the Wall Street Journal, New York Times, and Bloomberg. Professor Gillis received his Ph.D. at the Macquarie Graduate School of Management in Australia.

Dr. Gillis last testified before the Commission in January 2017.