Ho Miu Lam Chair in China and Pacific Relations, Associate Professor of Political Science, GPS, UC San Diego

Victor Shih is the Ho Miu Lam Chair in China and Pacific Relations and Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of California San Diego School of Global Policy and Strategy. A scholar of China's political economy, Dr. Shih has published widely on the politics of Chinese banking policies, fiscal policies, and exchange rates, and was the first analyst to identify the risk of massive local government debt. Dr. Shih previously worked as a principal for the Carlyle Group in its hedge fund arm in New York City. He is currently engaged in a study of how the coalition-formation strategies of the founding leaders had a profound impact on the evolution of the Chinese Communist Party. Dr. Shih is also constructing a large database on biographical information of elites in China to better understand the importance of networks in political decision-making. Dr. Shih holds a Ph.D. in Government from Harvard University and a B.A. in East Asian Studies from George Washington University.

Dr. Shih last testified before the Commission in September 2009.
