

Emily de La Bruyere
Principal, Horizon Advisory

Emily de La Bruyere is a co-founder of Horizon Advisory. She has led extensive China research programs and developed novel analysis tools and techniques. She received her BA summa cum laude from Princeton University and her MA summa cum laude from Sciences Po, Paris, where she was the Michel David-Weill Fellow. Her public commentaries have been published in Bloomberg, the Wall Street Journal, and TechCrunch. In March, she served as an expert witness at a Senate Banking hearing on the threat of China's State-Owned Enterprises in American infrastructure.